Please join us for our next Southern California HAUS event in Irvine!

You are cordially invited to join us for a discussion on

US-German cultural differences on Wednesday, February 22, at 6:00 p.m.

at the University of California at Irvine (UCI).

Humanities Gateway Building, Room 1030, UC Irvine, Irvine, CA 92617

Parking is at Lot 7 on the UCI campus.

Sponsored by the German-American Business Association (GABA), the German Consulate General, and UCI, a panel of experts will lead a discussion about cultural differences in diplomacy, the workspace, education and everyday life.

German Consul General, Hans Jörg Neumann, will be the keynote speaker. Other speakers include Dr. Oliver Schuh, Managing Director of Real Difference Management Consulting, and Dr. David Pan, Professor of German at UCI.

The evening starts with a reception from 6:00 to 6:45 p.m. and concludes with networking opportunities until 9:00 p.m.

The cost of the event is $20 for GABA members and $25 for non-GABA members by 2/21/17. Tickets at the door are $35. Appetizers and drinks will be provided. For more information and to purchase tickets, please click here.

In addition to purchasing your tickets directly through the GABA website, please let us know you're coming so that we can enjoy the evening together! RSVP by February 20 by registering here.

We look forward to seeing you soon!

Herzliche Grüße,

Diane Guido
